

Network for Disabled Children

The benefits to families joining the Network include having a chance to contribute to the development of services, and receiving email notifications of events and other local information that may be of interest. By joining the Network, families help agencies to have a more complete picture of the needs of disabled children and young people in Sunderland, which helps planning services for the future.

More information is available from Life, Family &

Learning Tel: (0191) 5205553, Email: lifeandfamily@sunderland.gov.uk